Hearts Turned Inside Out

Philippians 2:1-11

December 8, 2024

Dr. Kelly B. Burton

If you are just joining the Philippian study, last week we learned why Paul loved the Philippian church so much. In prison in Rome, Paul received a financial blessing from the church which encouraged him. He wrote back to thank them. He wanted the church to not worry about him. All the guards of the Roman prison had already heard the Gospel! Paul dared them to do the same in their adversities. Today, in chapter 2, we read about the journey Jesus made to earth to give His life for the church. By reminding them about the life, death, and exaltation of Jesus, Paul illustrated the attitude he wanted the church to have towards each other. Bow your mind to others and your knee to Jesus.

Sermon in a Sentence: Bow your mind to others and your knee to Jesus.

2:1-4 Church Unity Calls for the Crucifixion of Big Egos

Have the same mind and the same affections for one another.

Lay down your selfish ambitions to outperform each other.

What would your marriage look like if you treasured her needs above your own?

2:5-11 There is A Dramatic Distance from Membership to Lordship

The Journey of Jesus: The Preexistence of Jesus, The Incarnation of Jesus, The Death of Jesus, The Exaltation of Jesus.

Trace your Christian journey. What comforts and conveniences have you given up for others?
